- (1) Selection procedure
 - Selection procedure is announced by the program coordinator in accordance with program conditions available in the EU and DZS (House of International Cooperation, www.dzs.cz) information materials, for example the Erasmus+ Program Manual.
 - Information about the Selection procedure being held is available on the school's website in the Erasmus/students/Selection procedure section, posted on the notice board in the School Information System, on notice boards in the buildings and also sent to school e-mail addresses of students.
 - Selection procedure may be announced separately for study visits and practical trainings or in a combination of both.
 - Selection procedure for study visits and practical trainings is announced at least once per semester. For study stays, students always apply for stays realized in the following semester. Any subsequent rounds will depend on the volume of funds and quotas given by the interinstitutional contracts.
 - The submission of and application for a selection procedure is governed by the terms of the tender documentation. The evaluation of selection procedure is carried out by the program coordinator an assistant according to the criteria published in the tender documentation. A protocol is made as a record about the results of the selection procedure.
 - In the case of a lack of places at a foreign university resulting from the quotas given by interinstitutional contracts, students are offered to realize mobility at another partner school provided the conditions are met.
- (2) Payment of financial support
 - The coordinator enters a request to the Financial Department to pay the first instalment of financial support (by the means of e-mail or in writing) and supplies a copy of the student's participation contract.
 - The financial support is paid in two installments: 80 % before departure and 20 % after return and meeting the mobility conditions.
 - If the conditions set out in the Subscriber Contract are met, the Coordinator will ask the Finance Department to pay a second installment of financial support (by e-mail or in writing) after the mobility has ended.
 - If the period of stay is shortened or certain mobility conditions are not fulfilled, the Erasmus+ program conditions apply to any reduction or refund of financial support.
 - The obligation to pay tuition fees under the study agreement is maintained even during the period of the stay abroad.

- (3) Acknowledgement of subjects from abroad
- The student is entitled to the recognition of all subjects from a foreign stay that he/she has approved in the Learning Agreement from AMBIS and partner foreign institution prior to the trip.
 - Acknowledgements of subjects from abroad is entrusted to the Vice-Rector for Study on basis of the recommendation of the Guarantor of the study program.
 - Subjects from abroad are recognized with the credit value they hold at AMBIS.
 - The student submits to the Study Department an Application for Recognition of Subjects, Transcript of Records from Foreign Institution and also syllabuses of the subjects for which he/she applies for to be recognized.
 - The Vice Rector for Studies evaluates the application and subsequently enters an instruction to the Study Department with request to enter recognized subjects into Information System.
 - In the case of student going on a practical training, the internship can be recognized (in whole or in part) as a subject called Professional Practise if the subject is listed in the curriculum of his/her field of study.
 - The student asks for acknowledgement of a practical training instead of the Professional Practice course through the Study Department, where he/she submits a confirmation of the completed practical training, including content of this practical training together with the Application for the Acknowledgements of the Professional Practice course.
 - The recognition of practical training is decided by the Vice-Rector for Studies and consulted with guarantors of study programs and the Professional Practice course.
 - All outgoing students, no matter what type of mobility, are intitled to receive a total of 5 ECTS, which they receive for an optional subject Stay Abroad.
 - Application for recognition of subjects from Erasmus+ stay abroad is free of charge.
- (4) Individual study plan
